TIGER'S

Code of Accountability

The Tiger Code of Accountability is a promise we make to our clients that is intended to provide a written guarantee that Tiger will provide a very high level of service on your behalf and that your expectations will be met and any questions dealt with on a priority basis.

This Code details the general principles that guide our inspection relationship with our clients.

1. To Tiger's clients, we understand your purchase is likely to be the most or one of the most important and largest purchases of your life. We strive to provide you with a diagnostic evaluation, within the scope of The Connecticut Home Inspection Standards of Practice, that will make your decision an informed one.

2. To Tiger's clients, we guarantee we will report to you any issues that are visible, and accessible at the time of inspection. We guarantee we will adhere to the Connecticut and ASHI Home Inspection Standards of Practice as a minimum. We focus our efforts on extraordinary client service. Since 1992, we have been devoted to delivering the best advice and service to our clients. We do not answer to outside forces or interests. We answer only to our clients.

3. Tiger's clients are the most important people to our business. Whether in person at an inspection, by phone, by mail, they deserve a timely response to all inquiries or contacts.

4. Tiger will hold in confidence and consider as privileged, all information pertaining to our clients' inspections and tests.

5. In order to provide an optimal level of service, Tiger expects a mutually honest and forthcoming relationship with our clients. Tiger expects that you will thoroughly review the report and consider carefully any item noted as "not functioning as intended" during your contractual inspection period.

6. When our clients' expectations are met and they are satisfied with our service, Tiger anticipates that our clients will introduce our service to others.
